For something new in flower gardening, try scented leaf geraniums. These will blend nicely with other plants in your borders and provide a fine, delicate aroma for your gardens.

Scented leaf geraniums will grow in almost any soil and any place. The foliage is very desirable for use in corsages and flower arrangements. No two are alike in scent or foliage. You and your friends will enjoy the odors of these fine plants. ADD SOME OF THESE TO YOUR HERB ORDERS AND PLANT TOGETHER.

Well rooted plants in three inch pots only, at the same prices as your herbs:
